

Introduction of Energy Audit Assessment

EnergyFree Technology is proud to release Energy Audit Assessment package which can save big money for homeowner and investor.

The package will assess energy performance of a building envelope, window & frame, heating and lighting system. The report will highlight inefficiency that will have a significant impact on energy consumption and your utilities bills. Investor would benefit this package as certified energy building would attract more buyers as well as protect their investment for existing building.

© Richard Payne, www.energyfreetechnology.com